How to Connect- Connecting Questions (takes the focus off you, and puts it on them)

Hey _____, this is just _____ from _____ you recently booked a call with us in the last few days (the exact day) about possibly getting help in your business. Is this an appropriate time?

I should probably start off by asking you have you found what you are looking for or are you still looking?

Do you know what you're looking for?

So I was curious when you went through the ad, what was it that attracted your attention?

OR

Can I ask what you were hoping could happen by responding to the ad/talking with us though?

The Engagement Stage (85% of the sale is made here)

Situation Questions- (finding out their present situation)

Can I ask what you do for marketing and sales now?

And how long have you been doing that?

I'm curious what caused you to do that?

Problem Awareness- (Open the emotional door to find out what their problems are, what caused them, and how its affecting them)
Tone shift
So… SO do you… do you like the XYZ you have in place now?curious tone
Steer them to yes
If they say YES:

Oh, what do you like about it?

If needed:
Is there anything else you like about it?

Two truth- (nobody likes 100% of what they do or have)

Generic:
So to me it sounds like things are going fairly well for you is their anything you would change about your (present situation), if you could?(then go to clarifying questions)

If they say no I don't like it:

What don't you like?

So I'm curious what is it about your _____ that you don't like?

If they expand on what they don't like:

Clarifying questions:

What do you mean by that? How do you mean by that?

Probing questions:

How long has that been going on?

Has that had an impact on business? In what way though?

Just so I can see the rationale behind why you might be looking to systemize your business, but besides having a step by step plan(repeat back what they told you they want) what's the main reason why you're looking to really streamline the business rather than doing it the way you have always been doing it?

Specific problem questions
How many hours are you working every week right now?

And how many hours would you want to be working if you could though?

Solution Awareness Questions - (Involves your potential customers and their ideas which strengthens the benefits of them changing their situation with your solution)

So before you started talking with me, were you out there looking for ways to generate more income online so you could work less hrs (what they said they wanted) or what were you doing?

If they say no

I'm curious what's prevented you from doing that in the past? Or what prevented you from looking in the past?

If they say yes

How did it work out for you with that company/coach?

What type of results did you get with them?

What do you think held you back from having success with that strategy/approach?

IF they say yes, but didn't go with them

Ok what prevented you from going with that company?

Let's do this just to make sure that what we are doing would actually work for you but besides _____ and _____ what are you actually looking for in training and coaching programs, what would be your ideal criteria?

Probing:
Why is ...that important to you now though?

optional:
Is there anything else you're wanting?

Now tell me about the money, you had mentioned you wanted to make more money in your business, what would be your ideal take home annually, what would you really want to make?

Shit goal - If they say anything below six figures

Is that your ideal profit/take home, or would you rather make more?

What do you really want to make?

If they say six figures and above

Ok so with what you are doing now, and be real with me but how close are you to profiting $250,000 (plug in what they said they want to make) every single year in profit in your business?

Why though?

What can happen if they make the change

So let's say we were able to help you get to $250,000 in the next 12 months in profit, what would you do with that type of money coming in though? (they will say, pay off debt, buy a car, buy a house, pay for college for kids)

What would that do for you personally to be able to do that? (they will give you feeling/emotional answers back)

Probing questions (based on their answer)

What do you mean by stress?

Well how long has that been going on?

Has that had an impact on you (and your family)?

In what way?

Well how would it be different though you making that type of money in the business (plug in what they said they want), how would your life be maybe different then it is now? (logical question)

How would that make you feel though? (brings out their emotion/feelings)

Probing statement:
Ok so that's important for you to do something then? Or Time to make a change possibly?
Ok but why

Consequence Questions- (Helps your prospect question their way of thinking and explores the consequences of not solving the problem)

What if you don't do anything about this though and you just keep doing the same things in your business for the next 3, 6 or 12 months?

Well, why is that so important to you now though? OR Why now though, why not do it later?

If negative:

Are you willing to settle for that?

Well whose choice is it if you settle or not?

So do you want to change your situation and start making more money or would you rather stay where you're at?

Well, why is that (so) important to you? OR Why now though, why not just do it later?

Qualifying Questions – (Confirms how important it if for them to make a change, take action)

So how important is it for you to change your situation and start making more money in your business?

Ok so time to make a change possibly?

Transition Formula- (Transition into presenting your solution)

Well based on what you've told me, what we are doing might actually work for you….

Because you know how you said….(repeat back their logical problems) that you're to busy working in the business to actually work on growing it to make more money?

And because of that it's causing you to feel….(repeat back their emotional feelings) I think you had mentioned a little bit of stress sometimes?

Well this is what I do and this is how it would work for you….

Presentation Stage – (Demonstrates How the specific advantages and benefits of what you sell will Solve their problem)

Remember when you said you are working alot of hours, not having time with the family and not making alot of profit from the business?

With your permission I can go over a few things that we might be able to do for you to help you with your situation, to solve some of those problems

Here is what we can do for you…

Present the various products as you normally do, except present them here now, not as they come up like you usually have!

Checking for agreement questions

Does that make sense?
Are you with me?
Are we on the same page?
What are your thoughts on that?
How does that make you feel?

Committing Questions – (Closing)

Do you feel like this could be the answer for you? (draw it out)

Probe:
Why though? Or Why do you feel like it is though?

Do you feel like this can be something you can do to get you where you're wanting to go in your business?

If needed:

Can I ask why though?

Well Bill, I don't really have anything else to go over with you, it looks like we covered the basis of what you might be looking for in systemizing your business, really the next step would be if it's appropriate, is we would make some type of arrangement for your Opulence program you can use a credit or debit card and then at that point we will go through your onboarding initial training, introduce you to your coach and start the process so you can start working on your business instead of in the business.

Would that be appropriate or how would you like to proceed from here?

(talk about spousal support)

Hold on.. How does your ___ feel about you having the right skills to make sure that your business does $____ in the next 12 months?

Okay, well what are you going to do if they don't want you to invest in the program so that you can get to the that level financially in the next 12 months?

Well, how are you going to get there if you don't have these skills?

Lack of money Concern:

Tell me if you did have the funding, is this something that would work for you?

(Most will say yes) Why do you feel it would though?

Okay so I can appreciate that money might be an issue from what you told me. How do you think you can resolve that where you can find funding to get the training and coaching to actually get you where you want to go with your business? (Let them come up with ways)

If they can't come up with ways:

What other avenues do you have to find funding to get your business up to 500k in the next 12 months? (plug in what they want)

If they still can't come up with ways:

Have you ever considered putting it on a credit card or paypal credit and just paying it off with the extra profits you make in your business from the training here?

How to get referrals

I appreciate the opportunity to be able to help you. Can I ask you in your mind how do you feel we have been able to help you the most?

With that in mind, who do you know that might be struggling with working to many hrs in their business?

Ok can you tell me a little bit more about this person and why you feel I could help them?

Well how do you think it would be best to approach _____?

Do you feel like you should communicate to him first that I would be calling him?

What do you think you should say?

Can I make a suggestion? What if you talked to him about the problems and challenges you were having in your business and how we solved those for you, to see if he might have some of those same issues as well? Would that make sense?

So besides _____, is their anyone else you feel I could possibly help?

What to say when calling referrals

Hi, is this _____, this is just _____ a mutual friend/business associate of yours _____ suggested I call you as I recently helped them get set up to improve their efficiency in their business and Jim had mentioned to me that you might be looking for ways to to do that as well. Is this an appropriate time to talk?

If client and referral both meet you

_____ nice to meet you, just so I don't go over things you have already talked about with _____ perhaps you could give me your thoughts on what you have discussed with him and then what you'd like to cover so we could focus on you and what you might be looking for?
